

Plantation Acres Improvement District

Broward County Florida

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PERMIT FEES

The building permit fees are based on cost recovery, billing for the time spent on the review for the permit, as explained in the Policies and Procedures Manual available at www.paidfl.org. This time includes, but is not limited to, engineering, administrative, legal, and printing costs, processing, field inspections, enforcement, and time spent on communications (emails, phone calls, virtual and in-person meetings).

By signing below, I acknowledge that I understand the Building Permit review fees and it is my responsibility as the Building Permit applicant to ensure that all project consultants, including the property owner(s) have been or will be made aware of the billing policies and procedures for Plantation Acres Improvement District.
